What DYSART COUNCIL Did

Decided to frame a By-Law to divert road leading to Kosklong Lake where it passes between Canadian National Railway and proposed factory of Alvin Kaye. Council have decided to ask Municipal Board for permission to sell Government Bonds they hold amounting to $5,000.00 and to purchase Telephone Debentures which bear a much more attractive rate of interest. Reeve Black, Councillors Brohm & Hussey were appointed to interview Bruce Gould re a settlement of his drainage problem. Council had an offer of $250.00 for lots 32 & 33 Harcourt and as these lots had been previously advertised with no response the above offer was accepted. It was decided to sell Lot 25, Con. 3, Harcourt to George Manning for the sum of $150.00. This property had also been advertised. The street lighting committee recommend the installation of seven street lights on the south side of Highland. Street two in the vicinity of the residence of Mr. Bernard Davidson and one at Lloyd Whittaker's. Said lights will be in operation shortly. The disregard for speed regularities especially on Highland Street and the lack of a man to enforce the local by-laws was the subject of a lengthy discussion and consideration it was decided to advertise for a man to see that local by-laws are adhered to and also to act as policeman during the summer months. The salary to be paid is two hundred dollars per month plus mileage. The matter of outside firms who pay no business tax whatever coming into the municipality and chiseling business at the expense of local businesses who pay business tax and support every worthy organization was another subject of discussion. Solicitor Hugh Nichol is to be asked to draw up a by-law regarding transient traders.

Former CNR Agent Mass In Local R. C. Visiting Friends Church this Sunday

Mr. Robert Johnston, of Stouffville, was in town this week renewing old acquaintances. Mr. Johnston came here in the year 1909 to take over the duties as agent at the local station and remained in this village until 1929. Bob as he is known by his friends told the press that it is still the same friendly little village, which cannot be surpassed for its natural beauty.

Mass will be celebrated by Father Kennedy on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock in the local Roman Catholic chapel. There will be Mass each Sunday during the summer season.

Orie Loucks Receives Batchelor of Science Degree

MINDEN — In a recent issue of the Globe and Mail, we note that Orie L. Loucks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vinton Loucks of Minden, successfully passed his fourth year exams in Forestry, which entitles him to the degree of Batchelor of Science of Forestry. He plans to continue his studies which will lead to a Master's Degree. Orie was 1953 Editor-in-chief of the Faculty of Forestry annual magazine "Ring". He is also president of the Phi-Delta-Theta Fraternity and will be on the editorial board of the University's paper "The Varsity" for 1953-54. He is spending this summer mapping Quetico Park in North Western Ontario near Fort Frances. The Echo extends hearty congratulations to a local boy making good.

Local Businessman In Accident

Gordon Reynolds suffered quite severe injuries when he was involved in a crash on the Haliburton Tory Hill road. Reynolds was driving toward Haliburton and when he came over the brow of a hill and rounded a curve found himself unable to get around a slow moving grader traveling the same way. The truck turned completely over a couple of times and Gordon was quite severely cut. Christie Cowan who was with Reynolds suffered only minor bruises. The truck was very badly damaged. The accident was investigated by Provincial Constables Hardy & Edwards of Minden.

Local M. P. Gets Bouquet

One of the most popular figures in the field of political life was a visitor to Beaverton last Friday. Clayton Hodgson, M.P., spent several hours in Beaverton. During a conversation with Reeve William J. Gillespie Mr. Hodgson outlined a programme of proposed work to be done at the Beaverton Harbour. The Department of Public Works is sending a sand-sucker to clean up the beach area in front of the park. They plan to do the same job at the mouth of the Talbot River at Riverside Beach. One very fine characteristic possessed by Clayt. Hodgson is that he will work just as hard to help anyone regardless of their political inclinations. This is something that has to be seen before it is believed, but so many examples of his good deeds are to be found in his riding that no person can deny his impartiality. If something in the district is needed you won't find the genial Clayt. asking which way the recipients are going to vote. If it is practical and feasible he goes to work and it is done. He likes people. He likes horses and he likes doing things for the good of others. —Orillia Packet & Times.

MINDEN ROTARY

Monday evening at Minden Rotary might well be called "Lodge Owner's night" in that some 20 of the lodge owners in this area were guests of the club. Main object of the meeting was to acquaint them with our program in respect to our annual Carnival and parade and the parade in particular in that we are looking for co-operation from them and their guests to put in floats which are the feature of these summer time parades. We feel that we will have their co-operation and our parade on August 12th will be a success. Lawrence Pritchard who is program chairman of the month gave a short talk on the sale of "car tickets". We also had an unexpected feature in that Mr. R. Ward of the National Film Board at Peterboro dropped in with a short film on "Travellers Cheques" which in word and picture shows the great diversity and far reaching effects of the tourist business in Canada.

Severe Electrical Storm Hits Area

Haliburton — A very severe storm of lightning, rain and wind swept over the highlands on Monday night. At the height of the storm, a bolt of lightning hit a large pine tree at the corner of Harold Bollanders house splitting it in two. A bolt also hit an ash tree at Wallie Chambers house. A large tree was hit and fell partially blocking the Minden-Haliburton highway near the hydro switching station. Considering the intensity of the storm, little damage has been reported.

Busy

The word it is "busy,"
We hear it each day,
Its repeated so often
It gets in the way

I was so very busy
I just could not find time,
If the clock had more hours
Then things would be fine.

I had much on my mind
So its easy to see,
When I was so busy,
The thought slipped from me.

It is busyness here,
And its busyness there,
Im the busiest person
You'll find any where.

Oh yes we are busy
We have so much to do,
But we scatter our forces
Too much it is true.

For the man who is busy
Has always a plan,
But he's never to busy
To do all he can.

Garbed In Nightgown Sonja Henie Chases Thieves

London, June 6 — Thieves snatched $30,000 worth of loot—furs, compacts and cash—from the apartment of Sonja Henie last Saturday morning although the skating star awoke while they were in her bedroom and chased them into the street.

Miss Henie said she woke with a scream to see a man standing over her bed. Her outcry drove him and his cohorts out of the house. She followed in her nightgown and bare feet.

The skater said the loss missing were a mink coat valued at $18,000, an ermine coat at $7,000, a mink jacket at $3,500, two gold compacts and $300.00 in cash.

Canadians May Buy Chairs For Westminster Abbey

Many Canadians who watched the Coronation of the Queen from within ancient Westminster Abbey are expected to go home with gold-painted chairs as their most prized souvenirs.

The chairs they will take those upon which they sat bring back to Canada will be as they viewed the historic ceremony—if they take the opportunity which probably will be offered to buy the chairs.

Westminster Abbey, which is not actually a church—labors under a $200,000 annual expenditure. To help defray these costs, monks, for a fee, escort tourists through the storied structure. To produce more revenue, abbey officials are expected to offer to sell to Canadians the chairs they used in the abbey.

It is hoped those Canadians who aren't interested in buying a chair for a personal souvenir will buy one and donate it to a library or school. Chairs not purchased by Canadians may be offered to others. Abbey officials say they have not decided what will be the lowest price set on a chair. Whatever it is, it is not anticipated a higher bid will be refused.

LETTER TO THE MINDEN HISTORICAL CONVENOR OF WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

128 Hargrave Street,
Winnipeg, June 3rd, 1953
Mrs. James Fairfield,
Historical Convener, W. I.
Minden, Ontario.

Dear Mrs. Fairfield:

Some time ago a friend sent me a copy of The Haliburton County Echo, which carried your letter re Village Histories, so I thought I should tell you that my grandparents: Thomas and Mary Young were early settlers in Minden. I can not say in what year they moved there but have been told that they went in over corduroy roads and had to clear a spot before they could build a home.

My grandfather was born in Wiltshire, England. He came to Canada as a young man and followed his occupation as a Millwright in Western Ontario.

My grandmother (Mary Robinson) was born in Kendal, England and came with her parents when she was nine months old. They settled in Cavan Township, Durham County. These grandparents were married in Peterboro in 1842. They may have lived in Lindsay for some time before going to Minden. Their property consisted of:

Crown Grant: Lot 4, on westside of St. Germain St.

Crown Grant: Lot 4, on east side of Milne St.

Crown Grant: Lot 5, on west side of St. Germain St.

Crown Grant: Lot 5, on west side of St. Germain St.

Crown Grant: Lot 6, on west side of Chandos St.

One hundred acres composed of lot No. 14, in Concession A. Township of Minden.

They had six children—3 sons and 3 daughters—all grew up in Minden. Caroline married and lived in the vicinity, Annie M. and Evangelina taught school in the surrounding District until they married and went away. I have been told that Aunt Annie started to teach when she was 14 or 15 years of age. John F. was in business there and in Haliburton in the early days Ephraim C. lived there practically all his life. He was Registrar of Lands Titles Office for many years. He always took an active part in community affairs. My father Joseph R. was in business there when I was born in 1881. My parents moved away a year or two later.

I spent a good deal of time with my grandmother and uncle when I was in my teens and have been back a few times since. I had the pleasure of driving through Haliburton County two years ago, stopped in Minden long enough to see what was left of the Old Home "Maplehurst" — Uncle Eph. called it, one could scarcely recognize the place. The lawns and terraces all gone and buildings on the sight right from the corner to the townhall, but we must expect these changes if it means progress. I also called in at Gull Lake to say hello to the Curry girls and Ida Noice. They are living in the village now I believe.

I trust you will find some of this information useful. If I can be of any further help kindly let me know.

With best wishes for the success of your work.

Yours sincerely,
Gertrude Young.

Northern Ontario, will conduct special services in Haliburton on the weekend of June 20th and 21st. A public rally will be held in the Army Citadel on the Saturday night and all are heartily invited to attend this meeting and listen to the Colonel, who is a noted speaker. An invitation is also extended to all to attend the regular services on the Sunday.

It Can't Happen Here

At the Dysart Council Meeting on Monday last it was decided to advertise for a special constable for the summer months. Council gave this question much thought before arriving at this decision being reluctant to spend any more money than necessary in this connection, but in the light of recent events here no other course could be followed.

The engaging of an extra policeman is no reflection on the work of Prov. Con. Gordon Langton who does a splendid job. His work is now all the more appreciated as we know that during his absence on holidays things went from bad to worse as far as law and order is concerned.

In the past few weeks some of our good farm folk have learned that on Saturday evenings their chicken pens have been pilfered and one week ago Saturday one of our hard working farmers heard a noise near his shed and on investigation he discovered a marauder attempting to lift some of his fowl when he attempted to corner the thief he was sluggish by an accomplice and before he could summon aid these cowardly punks had fled.

Now the lifting of an odd fowl is not such a terrible crime but when such acts are accompanied with violence against honest hardworking folk whose only crime is trying to preserve and protect what is theirs the time for corrective measure has arrived. A good many citizens are curious to know just what is or has been done to apprehend the hoodlums responsible for the recent wave of chicken stealing that has been going on here lately. One citizen has suggested that the farmers may have to form vigilante groups for their own protection. A little more co-operation between responsible citizens and police might be the answer to the problems of securing the identity and suitable punishment of the cheap Saturday night punks who seem to be infesting this area at present.

Is the Government Above the Law

On Saturday last, several Canadians were made very happy and also independent as the result of their tickets being drawn in the Irish Sweepstakes on the Derby. But, according to our antiquated laws, this is actually illegal. We say antiquated, because the law allows big business firms and wealthy corporations to carry on lotteries to their heart's content, while if the ordinary private citizen is caught purchasing a sweepstake ticket, the government makes him sign a declaration that he will infuture refrain from purchasing them and the violation of this declaration is liable to deprive him of all mailing privileges. In other words he could be deprived from sending or receiving any mail. The government that holds this punishment over the citizen is itself aiding and abetting lotteries.

We know of no greater lotteries than those being conducted over the radio stations either owned by the government or stations operating under authority of the government. If these so-called radio contests are not lotteries, then we would like to know what they are. In the case of the sweepstakes, the citizen pays for a slip of paper with a number and his name on it. In the case of the radio lottery, he has to buy a can of pork and beans or a bottle of catsup or some soothing syrup or any one of a hundred other articles which in many instances he or she does not want, in order to get the label or carton or the top or bottom of some article and send it in. In both cases this makes the contestant eligible for a prize, provided, of course that his or her name be drawn. We personally know of one housewife who bought twenty nine articles in order to get the wrappers etc., to send in, for one contest. She admitted that she didn't know what in the world she was going to do with the stuff.

Not only does the government get well paid for the time these radio programmes take up, but it also receives hundreds of thousands of dollars in postal revenue from people sending in their entries for these lotteries. It is natural therefore, for the government to close their eyes to these contests which have grown to such an extent that they now far outdo the Irish Sweepstakes in money spent on them.

This same government which makes so much on these radio programmes in one way or another now frowns on worthy draws, such as are put on by various charitable organizations for the raising of funds for charitable purposes.

We believe that the laws Canada regarding lotteries should be immediately revised regarding lotteries for charitable purposes.

Personally, we believe that when a man earns his money, it is his to do with as he pleases. If he wants to spend it on peanuts or if he wants to take a chance on making a fortune by buying a sweepstakes ticket, that's his business and no one else's for it's his own money he is spending.

To our way of thinking, everything we do is a gamble. We invest our money in a business and hope that it is successful. True, it takes effort, energy and brains to make it so, but there is always a big element of chance in it.

The merchant, if he is smart, will watch the market and buy and sell accordingly. He will stock up when prices are low and hold until prices are high. That is called business, but by whatever name it is called there is always a big element of gambling in it, for prices may drop still lower instead of climbing. If he succeeds, he is called a shrewd business man, but he is a gambler. The government is building huge stock piles of war materials with the people's money. If war comes, it is at least partly

Shower Held For Doris Wensley

On Thursday evening of last week Mrs. Melville McKnight entertained at her home the members of the United Church Choir in honour of Miss Doris Wensley who is to be married on Saturday next to Mr. George Wheeler of Toronto.

The bride-to-be was presented with a number of miscellaneous gifts which were contained in a beautifully decorated Wishing Well. The gifts were lovely as well as useful. Entertainment of the evening consisted of contests of various kinds. Lunch was served by the hostess and her assistants. At the conclusion of a most enjoyable evening.

The Meaning Of The Monarchy

During the reign of England's Queen, Britain and the Commonwealth have prospered—we hope and pray that in the Lord's Providence the Coronation of our Queen will mark the beginning of worldwide accord and peace of our troubled world.

Many people cannot understand why we concede so little authority to one in such an exalted position. By giving the highest place in the British Commonwealth of Nations to a woman who is not the most powerful, we proclaim our belief—which to a great extent has contributed to our political stability—that there are more important things than power. The Queen stands for these important things, as exemplified by that sphere of humility which is present in the possessors of power in the presence of the Queen.

If from infancy the idea is impressed upon us that we are but one minute portion of one great unit in whatever service we may be, we will think not of ourselves alone but for the good of our fellow man and country and in the highest sense our Queen.

Many who do not live under a monarchy seem content with an abstract idea—as an emblem or a document, but the British people believe that a more tangible and living thing as a person set apart to represent the life of the people, is a stronger and richer idea.

Men of all faiths will acknowledge that there is no love to the Lord without charity. Charity exists with those who regard the Queen and country as the neighbor in the highest degree.

God Save the Queen.

prepared, but if peace, (even our present uneasy peace continues for an indefinite period, it won't be long until all our stock piles of materials will become obsolete. It is a gamble.

But let Mr. Ordinary Citizen spend a couple of bucks on a sweepstakes ticket and get caught by Her Majesty's Canadian Government's Postal Service, then woe betide him. Yet we venture the opinion that probably one quarter of the members of parliament may have held tickets on the sweepstakes.

WEST GUILFORD

The first of June sees West Guilford smiling under a summer sun, with a good crop of leaves to lesson the fire hazard; local gardens in a more advanced stage than usual, for this time of year, and all signs pointing to an earlier and better tourist season. Most houses and stores display this week some pictures of the Queen and other coronation decorations. Stewart Wilson has finished painting the house on the hill, at Grass Lake, (formerly the old Griffin homestead); several visitors of the Brethren, came from Toronto and other cities, to lend a hand with the painting, and worship in the Gospel Hall, over the weekend.

Mr. Prentice has installed a new refrigerator counter in his store.

Frank Sims is building a cottage on McDonald's Lake. The mill at Centre Lake, operated by Noel Griffin completed its spring cut on Friday; most of the gang are taking a holiday until after the Coronation.

Clayton Lynn has returned home after a short stay in the Red Cross Outpost, where he has been receiving treatment for injuries, sustained while working in his mill at Tallow Lake last Sunday.

Mr. McKay of Oshawa is at his cottage on Redstone Lake.

Horace Brock spent the weekend at his cottage on Grass Lake.

Mr. Andy Sisson has returned to his work in Oshawa after a short rest at home.

Bill Barry of Toronto has visited his father Mr. Titus Barry.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Cooper have returned from their honeymoon.

Popular subjects of discussion around West Guilford are: the white gravel on the road in front of Mr. Henry Bain. We understand that Bain has placed this as an experiment, at his own expense, to determine if it might help lay the dust on the roads. We are watching results with interest as this white gravel is a local product and if successful would mean a boost to local industry, as well as being very much cheaper than the chloride which is at present being imported for use on the local roads.

Second subject is the local mail, West Guilford is the "forgotten country," again when it was decided to have daily mail for most of the district. Our post office closing at six p.m. does not allow time for working men to reach the office to pick up the mail on arrival. We understand there is some agitation

Pickereel a Major Attraction:

The 1953 season for the taking of Pickereel officially opened at 12.01 a.m. May 15th. Long before that hour and despite inclement weather, large crowds of optimistic anglers converged on dams and other advantageous positions from which to put forth their best efforts of stratagem.

Pickereel were not as co-operative as last year and not too many anglers were successful in getting their legal count of six. However, on Sunday, May 17th and Monday following, weather was improved and fish biting better. Many reports were received of good success and large specimens taken. Favourite places were Rose-deale, Fenelon Falls, Bobcaygeon, Buckhorn, Burleigh Falls, Rice Lake and on down the Trent River waterways.

On Sunday, May 17th, two hundred and fifty-two boats were counted at one time ly-

"It's fun to sing." Although West Guilford did not, 'place' as high as usual this year, we noted that the actual difference in marks, was very slight. The community is proud of the effort and spirit of good sportsmanship, shown throughout the day. Also we would like to note that many of the pupils who did place, were actually, residents of Eagle Lake, who are taking their grades 7 and 8 at West Guilford. Among these we mention: Barbara Pritchard, Yvonne Sisson & Shirley Hewitt. West Guilford appreciates the assistance these friends from Eagle Lake bring to our school.

The Quiet Hour

by Stuart C. Wilson

Our beloved Queen has been crowned. Such an event has indeed thrilled many a heart throughout the Commonwealth. Ours is a blessed heritage!

During the Coronation various portions were read from the Word of God. Among these was the following verse: 'Render therefore unto Caesar, the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's' (Matt. 22:21). There are two solemn responsibilities resting upon each of our shoulders. The one is reverence and homage of our Queen, and the other is rendering to God that which is rightly His.

The scriptures bear ample testimony to the need of being subject to those who are in authority over us. Whilst there are many today whom the Bible terms as those who "despise dominion", still the teaching of God's book is that we should "submit ourselves unto every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake; whether it be to the king as supreme; or unto governors, as those that are sent by him . . . For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men . . . Honour the king." 1 Pet. 2:13-17. The Bible also exhorts us to pray "for kings, and for all that are in authority; for that we might lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour" 1 Tim. 2:2, 3. Paul in his epistle to Titus exhorts him to "put them in mind to the subject to principalities and powers". Romans 13:1 tells us, "Let every soul be subject to unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God, the powers that be are ordained of God." A solemn warning follows this, for the Bible says, "Whosoever resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation." So in the firm teaching of the scripture we can see that God would have us offer the homage and adoration of our hearts to our beloved Queen Elizabeth II.

Our foremost responsibility however, is rendering to God the things that are God's. Here is a truth that was amply brought out during the Coronation service. In everything God must indeed have first place. How much of a place does God have in your heart? Do you know what it is to give Him His rightful praise and adoration? He loved you so very much that He sent His only Son into the world to die for your sins. Have you ever turned to the Lord Jesus Christ and received Him as your own personal Saviour?

May God give us a full realization of what it means to "render therefore unto Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's."

st 1,101.90 last year. Total objective is $1,379.00.

Mr. Hodgson, who is the M.P. for this constituency, spoke highly of the generosity of the people in the Highlands of Haliburton. He said that he felt confident from the outset that all citizens would respond to the call for funds to help The Salvation Army and its worthy work of mercy.

Canvassers report that they have met with great courtesy and friendliness in their house-to-house canvassing.

Those who assisted in this connection were: Mrs. Mary McCrea, Essonville; Miss Marilyn McCrea, Tory Hill; Mrs. Wes. Sawyer, Donald; Mrs. Lillian Hague and Mrs. Lucas, Haliburton Residential. All other areas were canvassed by Lieuts Brown and Marshall, the local Corps Officers, and Mrs. George Keefer.

Mr. Hodgson and the Officers of the local Corps would like to express their appreciation for all those who have "given from the heart", whether the donation was large or small. They also express their sincere thanks to the other members of the committee. These are Mr. Berkely Feir, Publicity Chairman, and Mr. Norman Grose, Treasurer. Both the local papers gave splendid support to the campaign.

Card of Thanks

I want to thank the doctors and the nurses of the Ross Memorial Hospital for their kind assistance to me while I was a patient there. Also for the host of get-well cards I received, the lovely flowers from the Lochlin L.O.B.A., the box of treats from the Ingoldsby W. A. and for the help that was given from different neighbours at the home here, such as sending baking, doing the washing, and other household things. All these were very much appreciated by both my husband and I. A helper in the time of need is a friend indeed. May God bless all these dear people. The way He blessed me with strength through my operation.
